1. DOD would like to declassify their document (attached). While all the info is on the time necessary to produce a U.S. missile, the paper was probably developed for the Intelligence Community so they could draw analogies with Soviet production. As you can see, however, the DDI leaves it to you to make any objection, if necessary.

1-4: NPIC EXO

Case no S&T Equities in this document - does NPIC? I would think it would be of interest to DDI, but according to attached they don't. Also, if pursued by DoD it is declassifiable by DoD. your comment, etc.

Don:

NPIC agrees with your assessment.
